3. GENERAL TERMS & CONDITIONS OF THE CONTRACT

- This Contract is entered into by and between Twin Island Pvt Ltd (hereinafter referred to as the "Principal"), acting on behalf of the Property (hereinafter referred to as the "Resort"), as identified in the relevant section of this agreement, and the Operator (hereinafter referred to as the "Contract Partner"), whose details are outlined in the "Contract Partner" section. Both parties hereby agree to the following terms and conditions:
- All reservation requests shall be submitted by the Contract Partner via email to reservations@ananeamadivaru.com addressed to the Reservations department.
- All bookings and cancellations, if any, must be confirmed in writing by the Principal via email, fax, or official correspondence.
- To ensure proper delivery of services to the clients, all reservation details must be clearly marked on all rooming lists/requests/accommodation vouchers.
- Guests must present a valid voucher upon check-in. In the event of any discrepancy between the presented voucher and the confirmed reservation, the Principal/Resort and Contract Partner shall cooperate to resolve the matter promptly, ideally on the day of arrival.
- The Resort shall invoice the Contract Partner on the basis of the services mentioned in the voucher.
- Any overdue payments not received within the agreed credit period shall be subject to an interest charge of 2% for every 28-day period or part thereof.
- Rates agreed upon are valid to the booking requests received from the office of the Contract Partner mentioned in the Contract overleaf.
- The Contract Partner agrees to adhere to the cancellation policy outlined in the referenced section of this agreement
- The Contract Partner shall use the Resort's official images without alteration or modification. Prior written approval from the Principal must be obtained before using any images or content for brochures, websites, or advertising materials, including final proofs.
- The Resort has a policy of continual improvement and reserves the right to carry out repairs, renovations or upgrades/preventative maintenance programs or emergency maintenance as it may deem necessary in order to keep the Resort in good condition. Such decisions may be made by the Resort at its absolute discretion. The resort will advise the Contract Partner of any major renovation work on a prolonged basis that may affect the guests' comfort.
- The Resort will make its best endeavors to hold rooms within the property, and reserves the right to use another property of the same if not higher category within the group in the very unlikely situation of an out booking.
- Any additional services (extras, meals etc.) rendered by the Resort which have not been indicated in the voucher and those which are not part of this Contract, shall be settled by the guest concerned directly to the Resort before his/ her departure.
- Claims, if any shall be forwarded to the Principal in writing within 30 (thirty) days of the departure of the client for investigation. Claims received after this period shall not be entertained by the Principal.
- The obligation of this contract shall be rendered invalid in all circumstances of force majeure, such as, but not limited to civil unrest, war and war like conditions, strikes, natural catastrophes epidemics, acts of terrorism and government ordered measures of closure and restraint that jeopardizes the ability of either party to perform its duties. In such events the Resort and the Contract Partner shall work together to keep the loss to both parties as low as possible.
- The Contract Partner must notify the Principal in writing at least forty-five (45) days in advance of any change in ownership or management. The Principal reserves the right to renegotiate the terms, including rates and conditions, following such changes.
- The Contract Partner agrees to indemnify the Resort/ Principal, its owners, directors and employees against any claim, payment for damages, fines or legal costs arising directly or indirectly as a result of breach of contract or negligence of the Contract Partner, its employees, agents or sub-contractors.
- This contract may be terminated by either party by giving forty five (45) days' notice in writing to the other. In such a situation, the Principal agrees to honor all confirmed future bookings of the Contract Partner that have been confirmed by the Principal, provided the Contract Partner settles the total value of such future bookings immediately (prior to the effective date of termination of contract).
- The Principal is entitled to terminate this contract without notice if the Contract Partner is in continuous breach of the terms and conditions aforementioned and/or becomes insolvent, enters into liquidation and/or act to an extent that the Resort cannot be expected to continue working with the Contract Partner in the own justified interest of the owners of the Resort.
- In the event of termination of this contract, the Contract Partner agrees to pay the Principal all outstanding dues for the services rendered to the clients as per the vouchers issued by the Contract Partner, immediately.
- All information and rates offered in this contract are strictly confidential and shall not be disclosed to any third party for whatsoever reason or purpose.
- Any Alteration or addition to this contract shall only be made in writing signed by both parties. Should any clause of this contract be invalid, this will not affect the validity of the remaining clauses.
- Any nights falling outside the contracted dates shall be charged according to the applicable date band, with the Half Board (HB) rate increased by 5%, after which contracted offers under this Agreement may be applied. These rollover terms shall remain valid until a new agreement covering the relevant dates is issued by the Resort.
- It is hereby confirmed that the signatory is duly authorized to enter into this Contract on behalf of the Contract Partner.
